

SCOTT GLEN TRAINING LESSONS

RIVER WINDS RANCH AND WORKING SHEEPDOG CENTER, CROWHEART, WYOMING, 82512

We are hosting Scott Glen for private lessons September 15th, 16th, and 17th, 2009, starting at 8:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. Call/email for an appointment of your choice of time and day(s).

The list of Scott's accomplishments in the Trial world is too lengthy—please visit:

ALTAPETESTOCKDOGS.COM

This opportunity to train with Scott Glen is between the Meeker Classic in Colorado (Sept 9-13) and the National Sheepdog Finals in Klamath, Oregon (Sept. 22-27th). This would be a really nice stop-over for the dogs.

Plenty of campsites on our property along the Wind River ( fishing..).

We are located 23 miles from Dubois, WY and 50 miles from Riverton, and 2 hours drive from Jackson Hole.

Mapping the most direct route from Meeker would be going north 339 miles to Crowheart and then, 900 miles on to Klamath, OR.

For those who aren't yet doing SheepDog Trialing— Scott Glen's forte is starting beginning dogs and handlers, but also putting the finish on trained dogs (pen, shed etc).

Costs:

65$ for 1/2 hour*

120$ 1 hour (may split 2 dogs)

Please phone or email any questions. We want to make this a wonderful time for Scott Glen and for any handlers enroute to the Nationals, as well as folks starting and working sheepdogs. We have plenty of plans for BBQ and refreshments.

* special $ incentive for "rescued" herding dogs (ask me)!
